About the Speaker:

M. Nader Sharifi, D.D.S., M.S. holds a certificate in prosthodontics and a masters degree in biomaterials from Northwestern University. He received his dental education at the University of Illinois. He has presented more than 400 lectures covering numerous topics on restorative dentistry earning him recognition from esteemed study groups, societies and associations across the nation and internationally. Dr. Sharifi currently maintains a full-time private practice of adult general dentistry in Chicago's downtown loop. Dr. Sharifi is a former assistant professor at Northwestern University and currently uses his experience as a five day a week wet gloved dentist to ensure time saving and cost effective care are represented in his lectures. In 1996 he was named to the American Dental Associations Speakers Bureau and in 2007 Chicago Dental Society honored him with the Gordon Christensen Distinguished Lecturer Award. He has also been honored with Fellowship in the American College of Dentists and Membership in the American Academy of Restorative Dentistry – both in 2010.
